Course Information

Family Enrichment Los Angeles is excited to offer for the first time a course designed for the single adult that is facing the most important life decisions. Issues like choosing a professional vocation, whom to date, marriage-readiness and the meaning of life, are frequent situations where they find themselves obligated to take decisions without having the essential criteria, or without the necessary knowledge to decide satisfactorily.

Using the case-study methodology, participants will learn to analyze the facts, the problems and discuss possible solutions of real life cases that are pertinent to them. These cases are catalysts for discussion where everyone is encouraged to participate. The course will be fast paced in order to cover 6 cases over a 3 month period.

Two 'come and see' presentations will be offered on September 24 in Pasadena and Santa Monica. Call 626-475-3891 for location and times.
